

Summer / Fall 2004 Downtime
AEG Week 11 Summary

Safety Shutdown

Due to an electrical accident at SLAC normal work has been suspended. During this week, before the full shut down beginning October 18th, some office related work including data processing continued. All other activities including field work were suspended.